What is New with Wag-O-Shag?

Winter Council of Chiefs

On January 25th a group of arrowmen headed up to the Kalahari in the Council van and met up with the rest of the Wag-O-Shag arrowmen at the Kalahari. During the main meeting there was a Section Chief special election because our previous Section C-7 Chief, Patrick McInerney has recently been elected to be the Central Region Chief. Congratulations to Joey Snella, who was elected as the new Section C-7

Chief and Tim Reiss as the new Vice Chief (even though, we're still a little sad there will not be any monster trucks at Conclave as promised by other candidates)!

There were many trainings and breakout sessions as well. After lunch there was a boat building competition and Wag-O-Shag lodge took second place (Wag-O-Shag's boat was so strong it could even hold an elephant...probably)! We would have gotten 1st place had Joey not pushed our boat under the water! A chicken lunch was provided by the Kalahari. Followed by a vote to approve the budget for Conclave. and the lodge paid for dinner at Pizza Ranch. Later that night, arrowmen went swimming in the waterpark. The next day arrowmen packed up and headed home with high spirits.

Troop OA Elections

Now is the time, scouts! Election season has crept up on us this year as is now here. Be ready for your unit's election! We are currently putting together unit election teams, so if you would like to aid in some cheerful service, contact Rick Ryan, Blake Stephens, or Daniel Tahtinen. More info is on the website here! If you or someone else from your unit (youth or adult) is interested in helping on an election team please send an email to electionschair@wagoshag.com
